Truffle Hunter in El Puig

Tuesday, July 30 / Tuesday, August 6 and 20, at 6:30 pm

Come and enjoy the adventure of truffle hunting. We will participate in the search for the summer truffle, enter the forest, and explore the secrets and varieties of the “fruits of the Devil” and their culinary applications.

Includes a guided tour of the scenarios, history, and characters that have marked the evolution of the spectacular Puig complex, from the first human settlements to the passage of Iberians, Romans, and the construction of the current hermitage.

- ▶ 10€/adult
- ▶ 5€/child from 7 to 12 years old
- ▶ Free for children under 7 years old

Includes truffle tasting and local product pairing.

Gaming

Treasure Hunt: The Epic of Barbarossa

Tuesday, July 23 and Thursday, August 8 at 7:00 pm

The imminent arrival of a galley of the fearsome pirates of Barbarossa has terrified the town of Vinaròs. The shelter of the Campanario tower is the only salvation option for the frightened population, but we will have to find the key to the tower door, or it will remain locked, and the massacre will be total.

Strategic skill game for teams and against the clock with puzzles and clever clues around the historical heritage of Vinaròs. 10 enigmas to solve in 90 minutes for teams of 5/6 members.

- ▶ 6€/adult
- ▶ 3€/child from 7 to 12 years old
- ▶ Free for children under 7 years old

Includes traditional lemon slush for all participants, support material, and prizes for the winning teams.

Tangosophy duo

Saturday, July 20

Tangosophy Duo is composed of accordionist Gorka Hermosa and clarinetist Josep Sancho, two performers who share originality as a common trait. They met in 2006 during a concert broadcasted on TVE2, where both were performing, and a special chemistry between them led to the creation of this duo.

Spunky Clappers

Saturday, July 27

Spunky Clappers offers an innovative musical proposal that combines image and sound. This duo consists of Vinaròs native Alex Besalduch (guitar, vocals, bass, harmonica, and percussion) and Miguel Àngel Bestard (trumpet, tuba, trombone, euphonium, vocals, keyboards, and programming). Their diverse musical influences come from Afro-American genres such as soul and funk, as well as Afro-Cuban and Latin rhythms.

Viðlíf

Saturday, August 10

Viðlíf proposes harmony between technical quality and community music, bridging the sounds of the transverse flute and double bass. The project emerged after a two-year journey through the Nordic countries: Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Iceland... where members Inga Freyrsdóttir and Miguel Àngel Luzarraga, a Vinaròs native, delved into the roots and repertoire of these countries. pays et leur répertoire.

All activities and events will be in Spanish, except where an alternative language is specified.

The Vinaròs City Council reserves the right to make any changes to this schedule, should circumstances require.
