Duo DE NO-MAISANO

Saturday, 25th July

Patrícia de No (flute) and Simón Maisano (guitar) present a concert that musically travels between Europe and Latin America, featuring rhythms, dances and vibrant soundscapes full of life. The programme combines great composers such as Schubert, Falla and Piazzolla with evocative melodies of a popular character. The flute and guitar engage in a sensitive dialogue, conveying stories, emotions and memories from two continents. It is a journey full of contrasts, from the most intimate delicacy to the strength of folk rhythms. A warm and vibrant experience that invites the audience to feel music as a universal language.

Hava Duo

Saturday, 8th August

María Benítez Mejías (trombone) and Jéssica Duarte Reis (accordion) present a unique concert that combines eras and emotions in a surprising way. From the delicacy of the Baroque period to contemporary proposals, the programme takes us through different soundscapes full of contrasts. It includes pieces that play with the mind, such as En bucle, inspired by obsessive-compulsive disorder, or Temperat, which recreates the beauty of broken glass. There is also space for the most intense and emotional tango by Piazzolla, filled with passion and sensitivity. A fresh, innovative and nuanced musical journey that will captivate the audience.

Musical Journey Through the Centuries

Saturday, 15th August

Ma José Domènech Fuentes presents an intimate candlelit recital that travels through different centuries of music history, with the flute as the main instrument. The programme ranges from the Baroque period to the 20th century, featuring works by great composers such as Bach, Fauré and Piazzolla. In addition to the music, the concert explains the context and evolution of the instrument, highlighting the differences between the Baroque and the modern flute. The performance combines sensitivity, closeness and knowledge to captivate the audience. An immersive and emotional experience that brings together music, history and culture in a unique atmosphere.
